

The following is a summary of the current status of the project construction and the activities that will be occurring over the next few weeks.

Construction Status

- Highway 101 is closed to traffic from Highway 61 to Creekwood Drive. Please follow the signed detour route.
- Excavation and grading activities are occurring along Highway 101.
- Retaining walls at the box culvert are being constructed.
- The Creekwood Drive cul de sac and Lakota Lane connection roadway have been paved.
- Sanitary sewer, water main and storm sewer construction is underway.

Planned Construction Activities

- Excavation and grading activities will continue along Highway 101.
- Retaining wall construction at the box culvert will continue.
- Pedestrian bridge construction over Bluff Creek will begin.
- Sanitary sewer, water main and storm sewer construction will continue.
- Highway 101 will remain closed to traffic from Highway 61 to Creekwood Drive.

The City of Chanhassen and Carver County are working with our contractors and other partners to complete our construction projects safely and responsibly. Work is being conducted in accordance with guidelines related to COVID-19 to the maximum extent possible, including social distancing and hygiene.

Bituminous paving on the Creekwood Drive cul de sac

*Retaining wall construction at the Highway 101
box culvert pedestrian underpass*

MORE INFORMATION ON THE PROJECT CAN BE FOUND HERE:
www.highway101improvements.com